

100 LUDLOW

AND THE COLORADO COALFIELD WAR
1914-2014

ludlow100.org

Tuesday, April 15

David Mason, Ludlow - Southern Colorado Reading Series, 7 p.m., LARC 109, CSU-Pueblo

Wednesday, April 16

Film: Matewan - 7 p.m., InfoZone News Museum, Rawlings Library downtown

Thursday, April 17

Lecture: Scott Martelle, Blood Passion, 7 p.m., InfoZone News Museum

Friday, April 18

Exhibit Opening: Reports from the Field: Newspaper Coverage of the Ludlow Massacre, 6 p.m., InfoZone News Museum

Friday, April 18

Concert: Ludlow in Requiem: Songs from the Mines - 8 p.m., Memorial Hall

Saturday, April 19

CSU-Pueblo Academic Labor Fest Symposium - All day, El Pueblo History Museum

Saturday, April 19

Concert: Creative Response to History, Daniel Valdez and Tony Garcia - 7 p.m., El Pueblo History Museum

Sunday, April 20

Greek Orthodox Agape Memorial Service with Metropolitan Isaiah from Assumption Greek Orthodox Metropolis Cathedral of Denver, 1 p.m., Ludlow National Historic Landmark

Monday, April 21

Statewide Ludlow Proclamation Day

Monday, April 21

Panel Discussion: Remembering Ludlow Today, 7 p.m. History Colorado Center, Denver

Tuesday, April 22

Pilgrimage Labor Reading: 7 p.m., Juan Morales, Bessemer Historical Society, Steelworks Museum

Sponsored by CSU-Pueblo's College of Humanities and Social Sciences, the Department of History, Bessemer Historical Society, Koncilja & Koncilja, P.C., and the InfoZone at the Rawlings Library.

For more information on activities, contact Fawn-Amber Montoya, associate professor of history, at fawnamber.montoya@colostate-pueblo.edu or 719-549-2620.

